

July Club 4-5 Take Home

We will be continuing our series in Club 4-5 for the month of July that examines different one-on-one encounters people had with God. It's impossible to be in the presence of God and not be moved or changed in some way.

July 5: God is Speaking, Are You Listening?

Bible Story: 1 Kings 19:4-16

This week we are studying 1 Kings 19:4-18 and focusing on following God in the big and small moments.

Questions to ask in the car or around the table

- How can you have a deeper appreciation of God's daily sustaining in our lives?
- How can you develop the habit of listening for the "whispers" of God in your life?
- How and when will you spend time listening for God this week?

July 12: God Comforts Us So We can Comfort Others

Bible Story: John 20:11-18

This week we are studying 1 Kings 19:4-18 and focusing on following God in the big and small moments.

Questions to ask in the car or around the table

- How can you have a deeper appreciation of God's daily sustaining in our lives?
- How can you develop the habit of listening for the "whispers" of God in your life?
- How and when will you spend time listening for God this week?

July 19: True Acceptance Comes From Trusting Jesus

Bible Story: John 3: 1-21

This week we are studying John 3:1-21 and focusing on how to seek God and his perspective.

Questions to ask in the car or around the table

- How do you know you are born again?
- How do you know if you are working for your salvation instead of trusting Jesus to save you?
- How will your faith in Jesus affect how you live this week?

July 26: Jesus Always Sees Us

Bible Story: Mark 5:24-34

This week we are studying Mark 5:24-34 and focusing on spending time alone with God.

Questions to ask in the car or around the table

- When are times you feel as though God doesn't see you?
- How can you take time to be with God during a busy time?
- How can you go to God the next time a difficult situation comes your way?
